LDP I: TEAM COLORS ~ AN INTRODUCTION TO TEMPERAMENT

This program introduces attendees to the "Real Colors" assessment tool created by the National Curriculum & Training Institute. Understanding the four basic temperament types (Blue, Gold, Orange, and Green) gives us a way to effectively relate to the perspective of team members with color temperaments different from our own.

The content provided will help in identifying motivators specific to each temperament preference, resulting in improved communication skills.

The knowledge learned in this class can be immediately applied in the workplace.
