Chair Oliver discussed the value of getting to know each Commission Member and their expertise through the Commission Member introduction presentations.

Agenda Item 6 – Commission Member Introductions – Identify Next Presenter

Vice Chair Perkovich agreed to present at the next meeting.

Agenda Item 7 – Community Health and Human Services Director Tim Burch Introduction

Mr. Burch detailed his experience as Human Services Director in Clark County, Nevada.

Mr. Burch outlined his support for an epidemiological approach to identify community health issues and to utilize collected data to inform and plan community programs and services.

Mr. Burch commended the city's current Social Determinants of Health Framework.

Agenda Item 8 – City of Tempe Social Determinants of Health Framework Follow Up – Dr. Paul Bentley

Dr. Bentley reiterated how the city's Social Determinants of Health Framework measures community health indicators that impact individuals within the community and then utilizes those measures to influence decisions throughout every department within the city.

Agenda Item 9 – Tempe Public Library and the Family Advocacy Center Support

Dr. Bentley presented a list of books curated by Library staff for the Family Advocacy Center's collection.

Commission Member Costa informed the Commission that she visited the Tempe Public Library's Caitlin Benson Collection, and selected the following titles that she would like to be added to the Family Advocacy Center's collection:

"Facing Fear," "The Green Apple," and "My Brother is Away."

Commission Member Costa also suggested the titles, "Brave Bart," and "I Don't Want to Talk About It" to be added to the Family Advocacy Center's book collection.

Agenda Item 10 – Elder Abuse Awareness and Prevention Presentation Work Session

Commission Member Montenegro advised that Mayor Woods, Tempe Police Department, and Linda Arters of Friendship Village will be hosting an event on elder abuse awareness at the Tempe Public Library on June 10, 2023.

Dr. Bentley suggested that the Family Justice Commission's presentation on elder abuse include narration so that it can be easily played and presented at Tempe City Council.

Commission Member Tinsley volunteered to do final edits on the elder abuse presentation.

Commission Member LeSueur volunteered to do the narration for the elder abuse presentation.

Agenda Item 11 – Family Justice Commission Sponsored Training Discussion

Commission Members discussed potential training topics and whether to create a new training or to promote an existing training.

Dr. Bentley suggested that the Commission focus on identifying those in need of training and connecting them to an existing training.

Commission Member Costa advised that there is a common demand in the community for information on how to handle a friend or relative who is in a domestic violence situation.

Commission Member LeSueur noted that there is something called bystander training and shared a link to this kind of training:

<https://nomore.org/learn/bystander-scenarios/>

Commission Member Stinchfield advised that CARE7 already has the resources in place to provide this type of training.

Chair Oliver suggested that the Commission have one more discussion at a future Commission meeting to determine what type of training the Commission will sponsor.

Agenda Item 12 – Mental Health Awareness Month (May 2023) Memorandum Discussion

Dr. Bentley advised that the Mayor and City Council are already issuing a resolution regarding Mental Health Awareness Month.

Chair Oliver proposed that a memorandum would be superfluous and the Commission Members agreed.

Agenda Item 13 – CARE 7 Victim Services Quarterly Data Review – Commission Member Stinchfield

Commission Member Stinchfield introduced data from 2023 Quarter 1 and made note of the lower number of people served. Commission Member Stinchfield hypothesized that the lower numbers reflect a recent staffing shortage at CARE 7 compared to the number of staff in the department at same quarter last year.

Commission Member Stinchfield informed that the low number of stalking cases reflects the difficulty in proving this crime. Commission Member Montenegro concurred and advised that many victims of stalking are unaware that they are victims, elaborating that the legal definition of stalking is met after two or more incidents of tracking or observing.

Agenda Item 14 – Domestic Violence Poster Campaign Update – Commission Member Costa

Ms. Galvan advised that more of the men's and non-gendered domestic violence awareness posters have been ordered and are available for Commission Members and volunteers to pick up at the Community Health and Human Services lobby.

Dr. Bentley informed that the Tempe Human Relations Commission discussed the poster campaign at a meeting recently. Commission Member Costa noted having meaningful interactions with members of the public while going to local businesses to distribute the posters.

Agenda Item 15 – CEASE Training Update and Discussion

Ms. Galvan advised that Chair Oliver, Commission Member Etienne, and Commission Member Tinsley attended the training on Friday, April 14, 2023.

Commission Member Etienne commended the training for bringing awareness to the forms of Human Trafficking that occur in plain sight.

Chair Oliver suggested that the CEASE training be part of the Family Justice Commission summer retreat.

Agenda Item 16 – Family Justice Commission Strategic Plan Discussion

Dr. Bentley reviewed the Family Justice Commission's goals and assessed the current initiatives that match the Commission's strategic goals.

Agenda Item 17 – Tempe Family Advocacy Center Program Update – Commission Member Stinchfield

Commission Member Stinchfield advised that the Family Advocacy Center is now fully operational and staff members are continuing to make minor adjustments and furniture and other effects to make it more functional and aesthetically engaging.

Ms. Galvan advised that a Doodle Poll will go out to determine when the Commission Members can attend a tour of the Family Advocacy Center.

Agenda Item 18 – Commission Member Updates

Commission Member Dode informed of a training she recently completed through the Arizona Administrative Office of the Courts on juveniles with sexually abuse behaviors:
