2016 DirectionFinder® Survey

Executive Summary Report

Overview and Methodology

ETC Institute conducted its ninth annual community attitude survey for the City of Tempe during the fall of 2016 to help determine priorities for the community as part of the City's on-going strategic planning process. The survey was mailed to a random sample of households in the City of Tempe. Once the surveys were mailed, ETC Institute sent emails and placed phone calls to the households that received the survey to encourage participation. The emails contained a link to the on-line version of the survey (www.TempeGov.com) to make it easy for residents to complete the survey.

To prevent people who were not residents of Tempe from participating, everyone who completed the survey on-line was required to enter their home address prior to submitting the survey. ETC Institute then matched the addresses that were entered on-line with the addresses that were originally selected for the random sample. If the address from a survey completed on-line did not match one of the addresses selected for the sample, the on-line survey was not counted.

A total of 1,202 households completed the survey. The results for the sample of 1,202 households have a 95% level of confidence with a precision of at least +/- 2.8%. There were no statistically significant differences in the results of the survey based on the method of administration.

Location of Respondents. To better understand how well services are being delivered in different parts of the City, the home address of respondents to the survey was geocoded. The dots on the map to the right show the distribution of survey respondents based on the location of their home.

“Don’t Know” Responses. The percentage of “don’t know” responses has been excluded from many of the graphs and the benchmarking data shown in this report to facilitate valid comparisons between City services. Since the number of “don’t know” responses often reflects the utilization and awareness of City services, the percentage of “don’t know” responses has been provided in the tabular data section of this report. When the “don’t know” responses have been excluded, the text of this report will indicate that the responses have been excluded with the phrase “who had an opinion.”

This report contains:

- An executive summary of the methodology and major findings
- Charts depicting the overall results of the survey, including trends from 2007 to 2016
- Benchmarking data that shows how the survey results compare to other cities
- Tabular data for all questions on the survey

Benchmarking Analysis

The City of Tempe, AZ

Overview

ETC Institute's DirectionFinder® program was originally developed in 1999 to help community leaders across the United States use statistically valid community survey data as a tool for making better decisions. Since November 1999, the survey has been administered in more than 210 cities and counties in 43 states. Most participating communities conduct the survey on an annual or biennial basis.

This report contains benchmarking data from two sources: (1) a national survey that was administered by ETC Institute during the summer of 2016 that is part of a random sample of over 4,000 residents in the continental United States and (2) individual community surveys that were administered in 28 medium-sized cities (population of 100,000 to 250,000) from July 2013 to October 2016. The “U.S. Average” shown in this report reflects the overall results of ETC Institute’s national survey. The results from individual cities were used as the basis for developing the ranges of performance that are shown in this report for specific types of services.

Section 3:
Importance-Satisfaction
Analysis

Importance-Satisfaction Analysis

The City of Tempe, AZ

Overview

Today, city officials have limited resources which need to be targeted to activities that are of the most benefit to their citizens. Two of the most important criteria for decision making are (1) to target resources toward services of the highest importance to citizens; and (2) to target resources toward those services where citizens are the least satisfied.

The Importance-Satisfaction (I-S) rating is a unique tool that allows public officials to better understand both of these highly important decision making criteria for each of the services they are providing. The Importance-Satisfaction rating is based on the concept that cities will maximize overall citizen satisfaction by emphasizing improvements in those service categories where the level of satisfaction is relatively low and the perceived importance of the service is relatively high.

Methodology

The rating is calculated by summing the percentage of responses for items selected as the first and second most important services for the City to emphasize over the next year. This sum is then multiplied by 1 minus the percentage of respondents that indicated they were positively satisfied with the City's performance in the related area (the sum of the ratings of 4 and 5 on a 5-point scale excluding "don't know" responses). "Don't know" responses are excluded from the calculation to ensure that the satisfaction ratings among service categories are comparable. [IS=Importance x (1-Satisfaction)].

Example of the Calculation. Respondents were asked to identify the major City services they thought were the most important for the City to provide. Twenty-nine percent (29%) of residents selected "maintenance of streets/buildings" as one of the most important major services for the City to emphasize over the next year. With regard to satisfaction, 70% percent of the residents surveyed rated their overall satisfaction with the "condition of major City streets" as a "4" or a "5" on a 5-point scale (where "4" means "satisfied" and "5" means "very satisfied").

The I-S rating for "maintenance of streets/buildings" was calculated by multiplying the sum of the most important percentages by 1 minus the sum of the satisfaction percentages. In this example, 29% was multiplied by 30% (1-0.70). This calculation yielded an I-S rating of 0.0870 which ranked first out of thirteen major City services.

The maximum rating is 1.00 and would be achieved when 100% of the respondents select an item as one of their top three choices to emphasize over the next two years and 0% indicates that they are positively satisfied with the delivery of the service.

The lowest rating is 0.00 and could be achieved under either one of the following two situations:

- If 100% of the respondents were positively satisfied with the delivery of the service
- If none (0%) of the respondents selected the service as one of the three most important areas for the City to emphasize over the next two years.

Interpreting the Ratings

Ratings that are greater than or equal to 0.20 identify areas that should receive significantly more emphasis over the next two years. Ratings from .10 to .20 identify service areas that should receive increased emphasis. Ratings less than .10 should continue to receive the current level of emphasis.

- Definitely Increase Emphasis ($IS \geq 0.20$)
- Increase Current Emphasis ($0.10 \leq IS < 0.20$)
- Maintain Current Emphasis ($IS < 0.10$)

Satisfaction %:

The "Satisfaction" percentage represents the sum of the ratings "4" and "5" excluding 'don't knows.' Respondents ranked their level of satisfaction with the each of the items on a scale of 1 to 5 with "5" being very satisfied and "1" being very dissatisfied.

Importance-Satisfaction Matrix Analysis

The City of Tempe, AZ

The Importance-Satisfaction rating is based on the concept that public agencies will maximize overall customer satisfaction by emphasizing improvements in those areas where the level of satisfaction is relatively low and the perceived importance of the service is relatively high. ETC Institute developed an Importance-Satisfaction Matrix to display the perceived importance of major services that were assessed on the survey against the perceived quality of service delivery. The two axes on the matrix represent Satisfaction (vertical) and relative Importance (horizontal).

The I-S (Importance-Satisfaction) matrix should be interpreted as follows.

- Continued Emphasis (above average importance and above average satisfaction). This area shows where the City is meeting customer expectations. Items in this area have a significant impact on the customer's overall level of satisfaction. The City should maintain (or slightly increase) emphasis on items in this area.
- Exceeding Expectations (below average importance and above average satisfaction). This area shows where the City is performing significantly better than customers expect the City to perform. Items in this area do not significantly affect the overall level of satisfaction that residents have with City services. The City should maintain (or slightly decrease) emphasis on items in this area.
- Opportunities for Improvement (above average importance and below average satisfaction). This area shows where the City is not performing as well as residents expect the City to perform. This area has a significant impact on customer satisfaction, and the City should DEFINITELY increase emphasis on items in this area.
- Less Important (below average importance and below average satisfaction). This area shows where the City is not performing well relative to the City's performance in other areas; however, this area is generally considered to be less important to residents. This area does not significantly affect overall satisfaction with City services because the items are less important to residents. The agency should maintain current levels of emphasis on items in this area.

The maps on the following pages show the mean ratings for several questions on the survey by Character Area. If all areas on a map are the same color, then residents generally feel the same about that issue regardless of the location of their home.

When reading the maps, please use the following color scheme as a guide:

- DARK/LIGHT BLUE shades indicate POSITIVE ratings. Shades of blue generally indicate satisfaction with a service, ratings of “excellent” or “good” and ratings of “very safe” or “safe.”
- OFF-WHITE shades indicate NEUTRAL ratings. Shades of neutral generally indicate that residents thought the quality of service delivery is adequate.
- ORANGE/RED shades indicate NEGATIVE ratings. Shades of orange/red generally indicate dissatisfaction with a service, ratings of “below average” or “poor” and ratings of “unsafe” or “very unsafe.”
