PUBLIC ART

Prequalified Artist List

Public Art is seeking artists who are interested in working with residents and developers on grant funded or privately commissioned artworks in Tempe. The Prequalified Artist List is used as a resource for those seeking an artist for built environment projects. All artists currently included in the list have been contacted to update their information as needed and ensure that they would like to continue being on the list. The RFQ will request qualifications from Arizona based artists who are not currently showcased but whom would like to be.

On January 25th there will be an online presubmittal workshop for interested artists to learn more about the selection process. This workshop includes a panel discussion with Q/A between three artists (coLab Studio's Matt Salenger, Oliverio Balcells, and Kristin Bauer) who are on the list and involved in projects in Tempe.

UTILITY BOX PUBLIC ART

Artist proposals are coming in for the Utility Boxes in the DTA. There are 10 artists commissioned for this project including Ashley Macias, Such Styles, Edgar Fernandez, Mario Garcia, Bill Taggart, Aaron Allen Marner, Meg Stapp, Lizzy Lubitzky, Jay Valentin, and Jun Blanco. Installation is expected to occur between February 7-15th with live painting by all artists on February 13th as part of the DTA Second Sunday event.

Design proposals by Lizzy Lubitzky and Ashley Macias

RECENT EVENTS

2021 Petersen House Holiday Open House

Every year, Museum staff (and a few volunteers) decorate the inside of the Petersen House for the holidays, and then the house is open to the public for free visitation the first three weekends of December, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Over the last few years (with the exception of 2020 when the home was closed) the museum began offering activities on the lawn, starting with a small museum pop-up shop and a lawn game. This year we hosted between 7-8 artisan, partner and A+C booths each day, as well as live music each Saturday. We had participation from across the A+C division: TCA provided staffing assistance inside and outside the home, Community Arts hosted a hands-on craft booth, and museum staff worked inside the home and outside at the Pop-Up Shop.

We weren't sure what visitation would look like for our first year back, but we're pleased to see how much of the community showed up for this experience, and thankful for all the support and participation from within our division.

Visitation

- 2019: 1,134 visitors; Donations = $987.73
- 2021: 950 visitors; Donations = $993.08

Booths

- Museum Partners
  - Tempe History Society: Sold Tempe 150 merch, memberships and Tree of Lights ornaments
  - Questers: Sold antiques and collectibles. Managed free cookies and cider on the porch.
  - Connected Tempe: Displayed historic photos and provided genealogy/family tree information
  - Tempe Garden Club: Sold plants
  - Museum: Pop-Up Shop of holiday and gift items. Total net revenue: $2,295.26
- Artisans
  - Wreath maker
  - Wood carver
- Arts & Culture Division
  - Community Arts: Hosted a free, hands-on Nisse (a.k.a. gnome) ornament craft

UPCOMING EVENTS

Tempe History Society Lunch Talk

C. J. Dyer's 19th Century Bird's-Eye Views of Phoenix and the Salt River Valley

By Ed Dobbins

Feb. 9 | 11:30 a.m.

Phoenix resident C. J. Dyer was an accomplished artist, surveyor and politician who created five bird's-eye views of Arizona in the late 19th Century. Four of the lithographs portrayed the greater Phoenix area, including a view of Tempe in 1887. The talk will look at the role Dyer's bird's eyes played in the early promotion of agriculture in the Valley, and that continue to provide researchers and curious observers with interesting insights into Victorian-era Phoenix.

Sessions are live-streamed via Facebook and recordings can be viewed on the THS Facebook page.

Tempe 2046 Time Capsule

Time capsule contents buried in 1996 on the south-west corner of Rural Road and Southern Avenue were unveiled at the Tempe 150 festival and current items are being collected to re-fill the capsule for the next 25 years. The capsule will be sealed and reburied the end of January or beginning of February until Tempe's 175th anniversary in 2046. Date and time: TBD.

EXHIBITS

Tempe 150: Milestones

Through March 26, 2022

Featured Gallery

Tempe 150: Milestones showcases the city's remarkable 150-year history with photographs, artifacts and documents. The diversity of Tempe's residents is also a key ingredient in the city's growth and success, and this exhibit looks at some of those important milestones, happenings, and people from our city's rich history.

TAG Celebrates Tempe History

Through February 26, 2022

Community Room Gallery

Tempe Artists Guild (TAG) members joined in the celebration of Tempe's sesquicentennial through artwork focused on the times, people and places of the city's past. See works in acrylic, pencil, pastel, mixed media and watercolor, many based on photos from the museum's archives.
