Victim: (inaudible)

Officer 2: So what's your plan right now?

Victim: I'm going to drown. I'm going to drown.

Officer 2: No, you're not

Victim: (inaudible)

Officer 1: Go at least go to the pylon and hold on.

Victim: I'm drowning. (inaudible)

Officer 2: Come back over to the pylon.

Victim: I can't. I can't. (inaudible)

Officer 1: Okay, I'm not jumping in after you.

Victim: (inaudible) Please help me. Please, please please.

Officer 2: I don't think they can get (inaudible) the pedestrian bridge.

Victim: I can't touch. Oh God. Please help me. Help me.

Officer 2: Sir, you need to listen to me. Hey, listen to me. Swim to the pylon.

Victim: I can't, I can't.

Witness: (inaudible)

Victim: Can you hear me?

Witness: Stop (inaudible) Get off of me. He didn't do nothing wrong. Babe.

Officer 1: We didn't say he did anything wrong.

Officer 2: Get off of the bridge.

Witness: (inaudible)

Officer 1: You need to chill out.

Witness: I love, I love him. Please stop being so aggressive.

Officer 2: Stop

Witness: Oh, my god is he okay. Stop, why are you doing this? I'm trying to help my fucking, please don't (inaudible). Due, what the fuck? You are the one that was aggressive with me when you arrested me last time. I know it.

Officer 1: Hey, stop. If you want to help your husband, then talk to your husband, talk to your husband into coming over.

Witness: I tried, I tried to that's why I was going over there. I just saw him in the water crying for help.
<inaudible> cause I love him.

Officer 1: Come over here, talk to your husband.

Officer 2: Stop talking to me.

Officer 1: Talk to you husband

Officer 2: Susan

Witness: Babe, babe. He's drowning, he's drowning. (inaudible) if you don't come over here now.

Officer 2: If you don't calm down, I'm going to put you in my car.

Witness: I tried to.

Officer 2: Stop it.

Witness: I tried to but I love this man very much.

Officer 2: Then talk to him stop yelling at us.

Witness: I'm trying to but I get very emotional cause I care deeply about him. Cause he gave me my little girl, for crying out loud.

Officer 1: Swim to the pylon.

Witness: Please, for the sake of your own life honey, please.

Officer 1: Okay the officer is going to get the boat right now.

Witness: I love you. No, no, no. Babe.

Officer 2: The other officer is going to get the boat.

Witness: No, no, no. Fuckin' swim.

Officer 2: You're not helping.

Witness: Swim, swim (inaudible)

Officer 2: You're not helping.

Witness: (inaudible)

Officer 1: 5E12 you got TFD coming right? (inaudible)

Witness: That's my fucking husband.

Officer 1: We got the female (inaudible) she was trying to jump over the railing.

Witness: No I was worried about him. He's drowning down there.

Officer 2: Listen...

Witness: (inaudible) I'm just distraught because he's drowning right in front of you and you won't help help.

Officer 2: Listen...

Officer 1: 5E12, mark that he went underneath and hasn't come up since about 30 seconds ago.

Officer 2: Stop. Listen. you need to listen to me. You need to listen to me

Witness: (inaudible) No. Please (inaudible)

Officer 2: You need to listen to me. You need to listen to me.

Witness: I'm trying to calm down. You are being very aggressive and I have a serve (inaudible).

Officer 2: Susan, stop talking.

Witness: I need you to hear this because if you don't save him I'm going to fuckin' have panic attack. Because he, I have severe (inaudible) anxiety from him. (inaudible) in a very aggressive manner. (inaudible)

Officer 2: Susan

Witness: (inaudible)

Officer 2: Susan

Witness: (inaudible) He is all I got. (inaudible) his going to die. I can't lose him.

Officer 2: Susan

Witness: He's everything I got. I can't lose him, he's going to die.

Officer 2: Susan

Witness: (inaudible) I need him. Literally. Can I please get my jacket?

Officer 2: Hey.

Witness: I need to grab my stuff, is that okay

Officer 2: You don't need to worry about that now

Witness: Yeah, I need my shit.

Officer 1: No, you don't.

Witness: Yes, because, that's my husband and I love him. And I'm just, I can't lose him. I was like (inaudible)

Officer 2: Susan

Witness: I'm freaking out because I don't know what to do without him. (inaudible) calm down. (inaudible) floor. (inaudible) floor so I can calm down. (inaudible)

Officer 2: Susan

Witness: (inaudible)

Officer 2: Susan, hey. What's your dragon.

Witness: My dragon.

Officer 2: What's the dragon.

Witness: The dragon.

Officer 2: If I grab your dragon, we're leaving here. Do you understand?

Witness: (inaudible). I don't want to. (inaudible). Swim. (inaudible). to safety. (inaudible) I don't want to leave here because I love. I fuckin adore the man. I'm so tired of not being heard (inaudible) all the time. (inaudible). This very upsetting. I can't even finish a sentence. (inaudible) so much for me. (inaudible) like (inaudible) seizures because of him. He's fuckin a good man.

Officer 1: I believe you.

Witness: He's honorable.

Officer 1: I believe you.

Witness: (inaudible). He's a (inaudible). I don't resort to violence but for him I'll do anything fuckin, just to make sure his okay. He taught me a lot. He taught me (inaudible) a good man (inaudible) good partner.

Officer 1: (inaudible) almost to the damn.

Officer 2: Susan. Shhhh.

Officer 2: Susan.

Officer 1: Between the damn and the pedestrian bridge.

Witness: He's all I have because I don't have any family left. Because all my family. All my blood family is literally dead and my daddy is suppose to be dying on his death bed. I'm dead serious. I speak no lie when I tell you this. (inaudible) I tell you this because (inaudible) bit more aggressive. (inaudible) His everything I have left. His all I got (inaudible) besides the birds and my dragon. (inaudible)

Officer 1: Your dragon, Susan, your dragon is right there.

Witness: Dragons do not go on the floor. Dragons belong in the sky. (inaudible) my husband is dying in the water right now. (inaudible) I love him. (inaudible).

Officer 1: Okay, I understand

Witness: (inaudible) talk to. I have lot of people. I have lots of problems. (inaudible) when one person comes (inaudible). I only have him to hang out with. I don't hang out with anyone else except on Tuesdays. When I absolutely have to.

Officer 1: Okay

Witness: (Inaudible) I absolutely love him.

Officer 1: Okay
